

Submitter:

Renee Ray

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Higher Education and Workforce Development

Measure, Appointment or

HB3182

Topic:

As a former student who lived in basements and survived on ramen and potatoes, I agree that it is important to assist students with their basic needs in order to promote success in their higher education experience.