Hello,

As someone who rents an apartment in Portland, OR, the current climate has already hurt renters across the city with more than consistent rental raises no matter if they've been legally measured.

Why are we putting people's lives into the hands of AI?? This isn't a game. We're not playing Mario Kart. This is the opposition of caring for human life. Please consider everyone having to deal with their rental agreement with their landlords themselves.

Thank you,
Sophie Wahl
