Dear Chair Pham, Vice-Chair Anderson, and Committee Members,

My name is Carver Akiteru Oblander and I live in Portland. As I think we are all aware, Oregon is in the midst of an extreme housing crisis, in large part due to a shortage of housing that new construction has not been able to keep up with. I think that anything that can help alleviate this sluggish pace, especially for affordable housing units, aught to be considered.

This bill is an opportunity to address one of the major challenges holding projects with affordable housing back. I hope you will give it strong consideration and I urge your support.

Thank you for your time.
