

Submitter: Loretta Bayley
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Early Childhood and Human Services
Measure, Appointment or HB3079
Topic:

Caring for these youth now can help them become thriving members of our communities and keep us from having to spend more money down the line when neglected youth end up on the bad end of our system. It is a wise investment socially and morally and financially.