I see no purpose in this bill. Limiting the square footage of a home makes little or no sense. If the owner wishes to rebuild with a larger home, there could be a wide variety of reasons such as: a growing family, multi-generational housing, multi-family home, etc. In rural communities, especially on farms, multiple generations often share homes. People may choose to have a larger family. Do you wish to limit that as well? I see no beneficial reason for enacting this legislation except to create more barriers to personal use of property.
