

I support this measure. Sweeping our houseless neighbors as rent prices go through the proverbial roof only puts them further back and makes it harder for them to ever get housed. I work for a family shelter in Clackamas County and I see firsthand the effects of sweeps. Most of our clients have full time jobs and STILL can't afford a place to live.

