Topic:

I'm opposed to our government dictating the size of homes- it's private property- I would guess that the size of our legislative body is in excess of our average citizen in our state- yet they want to tell others how to live.
You need to focus on important issues like "homeless people who choose to live that way at the expense of others "- develop work camps like they did back in 30s and 40s where gov hired people to work in the forest and other areas - gov could provide simple cheap housing and food if they want to work- no work- no food
