

I do not believe the state should dictate to city or counties on their laws. I don't believe this law does anything for the homeless. I think a more positive approach would be to work on funding work on mental health and/or dependency issues which could include sheltering the homeless.