

I do not want to extend the tenants' ability to not pay rent anymore. The landlords have taken on the brunt of this burden long enough let us move on and get our places and lives back. We should be allowed to evict under the law!