

I am in favor.

As a state, let's show Oregon can lead the country in honoring humanity and dignity for every person.
The problem of "right to rest" may not be the right focus. A correct focus may be fair and dignified public housing using public dollars. Not relying on the private sector.