

We are in dire need of support and funding for a new WWTP. Small rural communities are in no way prepared for the it to infrastructure that we're seeing today. We need all the funding available as our WWTP is near failing and feeds into the lower Deschutes River.