Dear Members of the Oregon Legislature,

I am writing to express my strong support for HB2141-1, a bill that recognizes and regulates the profession of registered interior designers in Oregon. As a NCIDQ certified interior designer and client business manager, I have witnessed firsthand the significant contributions that interior designers make to our built environment and the well-being of our communities.

Interior designers play a crucial role in creating functional, safe, and aesthetically pleasing spaces. Their expertise in spatial planning, materials selection, and adherence to building codes ensures that our homes, workplaces, and public spaces are not only beautiful but also safe and accessible. By formally recognizing and regulating the profession, HB2141-1 will:

- Enhance Public Safety
- Promote Professional Standards
- Support Economic Growth & keep skilled professionals in Oregon.
- Support Sustainability & Wellbeing

HB2141-1 is a vital step towards recognizing the important work of interior designers and ensuring that they can continue to contribute to the safety, beauty, and functionality of our built environments. I urge you to support this bill and help advance the profession of interior design in Oregon.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
McKenna Hall
