

Submitter:

Margaret Sherraden

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Climate, Energy, and Environment

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB2961

Homeowners can install EV chargers if they have an EV, but renters often have no access to a charger. It is totally reasonable -- and good business! -- to require developers install access to EV chargers in rental/multifamily housing. To reach our climate goals, we need many more people driving EVs.