

Mary Penelope Boyatt

Sincerely,

Thank you for your consideration and your public service.

Now or you support me when I enter the welfare system.

I strongly urge you to pass SB 611 as quickly as possible. The sad truth is this: Either you support me destabilize too many lives.

There is no denying that the lack of affordable and available housing and the abrupt and dispropotionally high financial burden placed on the low or fixed income, young adult and seniors, women, minorities and other at-risk populations constitute an unfair price for unjust laws that

Furthermore, any new bill needs some type of commonly recognized framework or guidelines for anticipating future annual rate of increase. The CPI is based on food only. There are other indexes that are more broadly based and include other costs of living for seniors, including rent and medical expenses. Some experts recommend using the CPI-E for figuring rent increases.

Landlords who seek such high increases in rent annually should not be allowed to invest in senior apartments where individuals on limited or fixed income have to carefully plan their long-term expenses far beyond an affordable range.

Landlords who seek such high increases in rent annually should not be allowed to invest in senior

Your Senior Citizens?

Since November, several senior residents have moved out; within the past week, four more seniors announced their departure by the end of the month. The prospect of an unstable future is increasingly becoming the "new norm" for retirees residing at the Eugene Hotel. Is that the "Oregon Way" to treat

Eugene community had increased the rent an average of 3% per year. That means that retired owners of my retirement community, the Eugene Hotel Retirement Center, notified its senior residents residents, many of whom are on limited or fixed incomes, face an increase in rent from $220 to $330 per month, depending on the size of the apartment. The sudden and sheer increase in rent is generally viewed by our residents as excessive and personally unsustainable in the future. If face rent increases like the one this year in the future, I will have to look for more affordable housing elsewhere (if it exists)!

Since November, senior residents have moved out; within the past week, four more seniors announced their departure by the end of the month. The prospect of an unstable future is increasingly becoming the "new norm" for retirees residing at the Eugene Hotel. Is that the "Oregon Way" to treat

landlords who seek such high increases in rent annually should not be allowed to invest in senior citizens? Some experts recommend using the CPI-E for figuring rent increases.

Landlords who seek such high increases in rent annually should not be allowed to invest in senior citizens? Some experts recommend using the CPI-E for figuring rent increases.

Landlords who seek such high increases in rent annually should not be allowed to invest in senior citizens? Some experts recommend using the CPI-E for figuring rent increases.

Landlords who seek such high increases in rent annually should not be allowed to invest in senior citizens? Some experts recommend using the CPI-E for figuring rent increases.

Chair Jama, Vice Chair Anderson, Members of the Committee: