

Submitter: Mark Garcia
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Judiciary
Measure: HB3294

I am shocked to see that this language still exists in current deeds. This is something that should have been addressed many decades ago. I believe now is the time to redact the discriminatory language. With inflation thru the roof these days, this could cost more if wait any longer.