

I want to live in a city that is compassionate and helps the most vulnerable of its citizens.. we are only as strong as our weakest link.
Being houseless. Being Poor. Is a hard enough experience. Making it illegal is adding insult to injury. Everyone should have the right to rest.